

What A Great Lesson Looks Like PE GCSE Theory

 Final Active students in a safe environment following our school values: love, respect, hope, kin and resilience: Fleachers aurture students in a safe environment following our school values: love, respect, hope, kin and resilience: Fleacher is at the entrance to the classroom – meet, greet and seat. Publis enter the classroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Retrieval Activity on entry Publis enter the classroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Retrieval Activity on entry High expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning: teachers expect students to be eq and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. Teachers to ster positive working relationships with students, awarding proise points and golden ticke in the school sancting system is consistently used in the department. A warming is given for any failure is the school sancting system is consistently used in the department. A warming is given for any failure is the school sancting system is consistently used in the department. A warming is given for any failure is the school sancting system is consistently used in the department. A warming is given for any failure is the school sancting system and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration achievement. Honework is designed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in let Mapping and meeting and achievement. Honework is designed to support and challenge all students including the higher attainers through explicit fleacching and outcomes. Honework is designed to support and challenge all students including the higher attainers through explicit fleacching and outcomes. Personal Learning destensing thas, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adoptive teaching and outcomes.	Attrance to the classroom – meet, greet and seat. ssroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Now in entry actations: are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped gaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. In system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow a noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. If or success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. Itive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to hextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at excellance: and resilience. end resilience. and resilience. end resilience. Teacher is at the entrance to the classroom – meet, greet and seat. Public enter the classroom is illence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Retrieval Activity on entry Retrieval Activity on entry Image: Standards of the entry<	Attrance to the classroom – meet, greet and seat. ssroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Now in entry actations: are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped gaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. In system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow a noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. If or success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. Itive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to hextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at ensuing standards of behaviour and engagement or high and create a positive climate of learning. Fligh expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be eq and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. High expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be eq and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. High expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be eq and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. Teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke of learning. High expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be eq and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. Teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke of learning. Budents are seated for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiratio achievement. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and ensure success; Every student is hown. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing. All students know how to improve and be contribute students' next steps usin	ssroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Now a entry ectations: are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped agging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow d noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning.
 Standards of behaviour and engagement are high and create a positive climate a high and create a positive climate of learning. Teacher is at the entrance to the classroom – meet, greet and seat. Pupils enter the classroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Retrieval Activity on entry. Behaviour and Expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be eq and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. Teacher store positive working relationships with students, awarding proise points and golden licke. The school sonction system is consistently used in the department. A worning is given for any follure 1 the Sutton Way and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escond with removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Videristanding, adapting and meeting the needs of all learners in order to build contletere, provide challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Students are seated for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration achievement. Teachers use adaptive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highe attainers through explicit teaching of voccabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feeching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative as suing cold calling, call and response, live marking least of all. Teachers use assessments both formative as suing cold calling, call and response, live marking least on do contextuolise students' next steps using cold calling, call and respo	ssroom in silence and get their equipment out on the desk and complete the Do Now a entry ectations: are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped agging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow d noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning.
 Retrieval Activity on entry Students are sealed for success and taught in mixed ability clase	a entry actations: are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped gaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow a noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. a for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. hed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest splicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to hextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at Behaviour and Expectations: Beacheviour and Expectation and Expectations: Beacheviour and Expectation and Expectation and Expectation and Expectations: Beacheviour and Expectation and Expectations: Beacheviour and Expectation and Expechave and Expectatio	ectations: pare set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped gaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow d noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. hed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. checklists are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all.
 High expectations are set with regards to behaviour for learning: teachers expect students to be equal organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. Husting relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke to the suffer and organised, engaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. The school sanction system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure i the Suffor Way and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is esc with removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Jinderstanding, adpling and meeting the needs of all. The acher suse adaptive teaching strategies to support and extend pupils learning in let: Adaptive I teaching and period a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning. Teachers provide a variety of modelled tasks and questioning. Teachers provide a variety of modelled tasks and questioning. Teachers and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond adapting teaching to the needs of all. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond adapting teaching to the needs of all. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil provide eaching the expectition of learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil provide eaching and teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil provide eaching and teaching and teaching and teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil provide meaningful feedback supports improvement. All staff have	are set with regards to behaviour for learning; teachers expect students to be equipped gaging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. Itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. In system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. It for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. Need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. The teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. Sements both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at positive climate of learning. Teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke is teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke is teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke is teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke is the Sutton Way and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escawith removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Understanding, adapting and meeting the needs of all learners in order to build confidence, provide to build confidence, provide to build confidence, provide challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success clienting. Teachers use adaptive teaching and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the meeds of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking leact on eacher use access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher use oacess to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher sube access to local, t	paging in all activities appropriately to the work that is set. itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow d noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. hed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to nextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Teachers foster positive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden ticke The school sanction system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure i the Sulton Way and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escewith removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Students are seated for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration achievement. Teaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Homework is designed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in less datilities through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned challenge and ensure success. Teachers use adaptive teaching and outcomes. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklist are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Teachers use adapting Pacts are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adpling teaching the supports in provement. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher sustants. Teacher sustants. 	itive working relationships with students, awarding praise points and golden tickets. a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow a noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. hed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 The school sanction system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure i the Sutton Way and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escowith removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Understanding adapting and here so a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Students are seated for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration achievement. Teaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Teaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Teachers use adaptive feaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned chollenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learnin outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Teachers use adapting the needs of all. Students know how to improve; feedback supports Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to interching and learning. Teacher use access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to interaching and learning. Teacher suse on the shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	a system is consistently used in the department. A warning is given for any failure to follow a noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. Need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning.
 the Sutton Way and noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escowith removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Understanding adapting and meeting the needs of all tearners in order to build confidence, provide to build confidence, provide challenge and extension tasks, scatfolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highe attainers through explicit teaching of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning and outcomes. Fersonal Learning Checklists are used to resure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improvement. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improvement feedback supports in provement. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to interacting the pupils in a supported with PowerPoint/ 	d noted down on the white board and Class Charts, any further behaviour is escalated ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. need to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning.
With removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. With removal to a Behaviour Hub using a radio. Understanding, adapting and meets of all learners in order to build confidence, provide challenge and ensure success. • Students are seated for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration achievement. • Homework is designed to support and learners. • Homework is designed to support and challenge all students including the higher attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. • Teachers use adaptive teaching and outcomes. • Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. • Tracking pupils progress- Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. • Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. • All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. • Teacher instruction is upports improvement. • All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. • Teacher instruction is upported with PowerPoint/ • All staff have acc	ehaviour Hub using a radio. d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. ned to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to nextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Students are seated for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration achievement. Feaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Feaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Feaching assistants are utilised to support and develop and extend pupils learning in less achievement. Feacher use adaptive teaching strategies to support and develop and extend pupils learning in less challenge and ensure success. Feachers use adaptive teaching and outcomes. Feachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectition of learning and outcomes. Fersonal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning. Fracking pupils progress thunting not fishing and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Feachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher substruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	d for success and taught in mixed ability classes designed to encourage aspiration and are utilised to support all learners. hed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest xplicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. adapting and meeting the needs of all learners in order to support and the degin in thinked daming added designed to checking of a chick wement. Teaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Homework is designed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lest database designed and extending of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned attainers through explicit teaching and vocomes. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improvement. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and learning. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode impro	are utilised to support all learners. Med to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Teaching assistants are utilised to support all learners. Homework is designed to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in less datifier to build confidence, provide challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching data extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching data extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching data extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching data extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching data extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching data and teachers. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Hanters in a data frage and learning. Hacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	ned to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest point teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at Preeds of all learners in order to build confidence, provide challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers use adaptive teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned challenge and ensure success. Every student is known. Teachers use adaptive teaching and outcomes. Teachers use adaptive teaching and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconce and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	ned to support knowledge retrieval and develop and extend pupils learning in lessons. tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at Adoptive Teaching Adoptive Teaching Teachers use adaptive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the higher attainers through explicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned challenge and extension tasks, scatfolded tasks and questioning. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Itachers provide a variety of the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to interpret to and learning. 	tive teaching strategies to support and challenge all students including the highest splicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning ported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 to build confidence, provide challenge and ensure success. Every student is known. Tracking pupils progress - Hunting not Fishing. All students know how to improve; feedback supports improvement. Tracking have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in the access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in the construction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	 Applicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. Sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at confidence, provide challenge and ensure success. Every student is known. Tracking pupils progress - Hunting not Fishing All students know Hunting not Fishing All students know Hunting not Fishing All students know All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. 	 Applicit teaching of vocabulary, choice of texts in Reading to Succeed, planned ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. Sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at challenge and extension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	ension tasks, scaffolded tasks and questioning. variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at Challenge and ensure success. Every student is known. Teachers provide a variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	variety of modelled examples, with success criteria, for pupils to aspire to and to clarify learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at the expectation of learning and outcomes. Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning. Tracking pupils progress - Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconce and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconce and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to inteaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	learning and outcomes. Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at Personal Learning Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Iracking pupils progress - Hunting not Fishing not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Hunting not Fishing and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Multiplier and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	Checklists are used to ensure pupils understand and reflect on the desired learning borted in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to intextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Outcomes and supported in achieving them through effective teaching and learning. Indiana adapting teaching and teaching miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Hunting not Fishing not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to inteaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Known: Iracking pupils progress - Hunting not Fishing. All students know how to improve; feedback supports improvement. Ituating not Fishing Hunting not Fishing Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying miscond and adapting teaching to the needs of all. Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	Pads are used by all staff to track pupil progress each lesson, identifying misconceptions hing to the needs of all. sments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Progress - Hunting not Fishing. All students know how to improve: feedback supports improvement. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	hing to the needs of all. ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at
 Hunting not Fishing. All students know how to improve; feedback supports Teachers use assessments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and mode improve and to contextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking least one deep mark per half term. All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	hing to the needs of all. ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at Fishing. All students know how to improve; feedback supports improvement. Transforming theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	ments both formative or summative to provide meaningful feedback and model how to ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at students know how to improve; feedback supports improvement. Transforming theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/ 	ntextualise students' next steps using cold calling, call and response, live marking and at how to improve; feedback supports improvement. Transforming theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/feedback supports improvement. Transforming theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/Supports improvement. Transforming theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/improvement. Iransforming theory into practice. Using the latest All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/All staff have access to local, trust-wide and national CPD Subject Specialist knowledge is used to in teaching and learning. Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/theory into practice. Using the latest Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/practice. Using the latest Teacher Instruction Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/the latest Outcomes of the lesson are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/	" '9 . n are shared with pupils and teacher instruction is supported with PowerPoint/pedagogy and documentaries/video /tasks/ scaffolded worksheets. subject · Deliberate Practice specialist • Pupils are given purposeful tasks: cold calling, gap fills, exam style questions, Retrieval Practice and knowledge to technique.	poseful tasks: cold calling, gap fills, exam style questions, Retrieval Practice and Exam inform teaching	poseful tasks: cold calling, gap fills, exam style questions, Retrieval Practice and Exam inside the	poseful tasks: cold calling, gap fills, exam style questions, Retrieval Practice and Exam classroom.	poseful tasks: cold calling, gap fills, exam style questions, Retrieval Practice and Exam
Organising and Retrieval Practice	poseful tasks: cold calling, gap fills, exam style questions, Retrieval Practice and Exam
• RAG Do Now Starters spaced knowledge retrieval.
Curriculum so Curriculum Sequencing ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g that all students Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g 1t in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and that all students understand the Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and ng with effective spacing. that all students understand the context and Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and ng with effective spacing. Dared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL that all students understand the context and their expected Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and ang with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that that all students understand the context and their expected learning Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the students will learn in that unit of work 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and ang with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the students will learn in that unit of work 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the students will learn in that unit of work 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. a It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and and with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL a Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school.
 that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the students will learn in that unit of work 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g In this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. In the lesson and as AFL the Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge.
 that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the students will learn in that unit of work 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. a In this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. Arred and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL the Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. Y model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop
 that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the students will learn in that unit of work 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. a In this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. The and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL the Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. y model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop lindependence in students. that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge and Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the student's language fluency, knowledge and Teachers communicate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. Revision strategies are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. Teachers frequently model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to metacognition and independence in students. Key vocabulary is referenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g th in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. y model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop lindependence in students. eferenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning of the
 that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Nurturing our student's language fluency, knowledge and skills so they are Key vocabulary is referenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning vocabulary is referenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning vocabulary, encouraging pupils to use it confidently in the context of their own work, both oral and 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g th in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. y model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop lindependence in students. eferenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning of the Knowledge and skills so they are equipped to be Knowledge and skills so they are equipped to be Knowledge and skills so they are equipped to be 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g th in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. / model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop lindependence in students. eferenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning of the raging pupils to use it confidently in the context of their own work, both oral and written.
 that all students understand the context and their expected learning outcomes. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the student's language fluency, knowledge and skills so they are equipped to be successful in Key vocabulary is referenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning vocabulary, encouraging pupils to use it confidently in the context of their own work, both oral and Reading to Succeed Reading to Succeed is an expectation of all students and a culture of reading developed in each 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. g th in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL e Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. (model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop independence in students. efferenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning of the raging pupils to use it confidently in the context of their own work, both oral and written. d is an expectation of all students and a culture of reading developed in each Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Knowledge is taught in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit built on prior learning with effective spacing. Success criteria is shared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL PLCs and Knowledge Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary the student's underts will learn in that unit of work Teachers communicate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. Revision strategies are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. Teachers frequently model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to metacognition and independence in students. Key vocabulary is referenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning vocabulary, encouraging pupils to use it confidently in the context of their own work, both oral and Reading to Succeed Reading to Succeed is an expectation of all students and a culture of reading developed in each 	ers spaced knowledge retrieval. a It in a sequential manner this is planned across the KS3 and 4 curriculum to revisit and any with effective spacing. ared and used / referred to during the lesson and as AFL a Organisers indicate the key concepts, core knowledge, and key vocabulary that at unit of work cate, where relevant, the links between the learning and life beyond school. are explicitly taught to support acquisition of knowledge. / model learning strategies, annotation skill, analysis, planning and writing skills to develop lindependence in students. efferenced within schemes of learning and teachers explicitly teach the meaning of the raging pupils to use it confidently in the context of their own work, both oral and written. d is an expectation of all students and a culture of reading developed in each es of each lesson is dedicated to reading.

