

The image shows the coat of arms of the Province of Ontario. It is a shield-shaped emblem with a red border. At the top is a golden crown. Below the crown, the shield is divided into three main sections. On the left is a golden sun with eight rays. In the center is a golden tree with many leaves. On the right is a white fleur-de-lis with a golden band around its base. The bottom of the shield is filled with three wavy lines, alternating between blue and white, representing water.
