The Home Page

Home Page

Your Seneca homepage summarises your work. Here you can:

- View your current level and XP missing to level up (1)
- Quickly access your next assignment due (2)
- Navigate your Subjects courses (3)
- Use the Navigation bar on the left-hand side (4)

Home page: XP tracker

Scrolling down your Home, you'll find more fun features!

- Your XP tracker. On Seneca you earn XP as you study. Check out your progress or set your Daily XP goal from this section!
- As you earn more XP, you can move up in levels and unlock rewards such as new avatars and “Explain answer” tokens.
- You can change your avatar in your account settings if you hover over your name at the bottom left of the Nav bar. Then click “Settings.”

Home page: Leaderboards

Keep scrolling, you'll find the Leaderboards!

- If you have studied from a course included in one of your classes that week, you can unlock your class leaderboard and see where you rank across your classmates!
- Click “School leaderboard” to see where your school is ranked against other schools in your area.

Class leaderboard		School leaderboard
(Mr Smith) ▼		0 5 : 1 0 : 2 4 : 4 4
		DAYS HOURS MINUTES SECONDS
Student			XP
1		Disastrous Cap	423
2		Jittery Side 	273
3		Ultra Season	155
4		Needless Octopus	150
5		Public Food	56
6		Befitting Fox	56
7		Clear Creditor	51

Home page: The Memory Palace

Final scroll: you've arrived at The Memory Palace!

- At the end of a Seneca study session, you can store what you just learned somewhere in the world.
- The Memory Palace is where your memories will be stored.

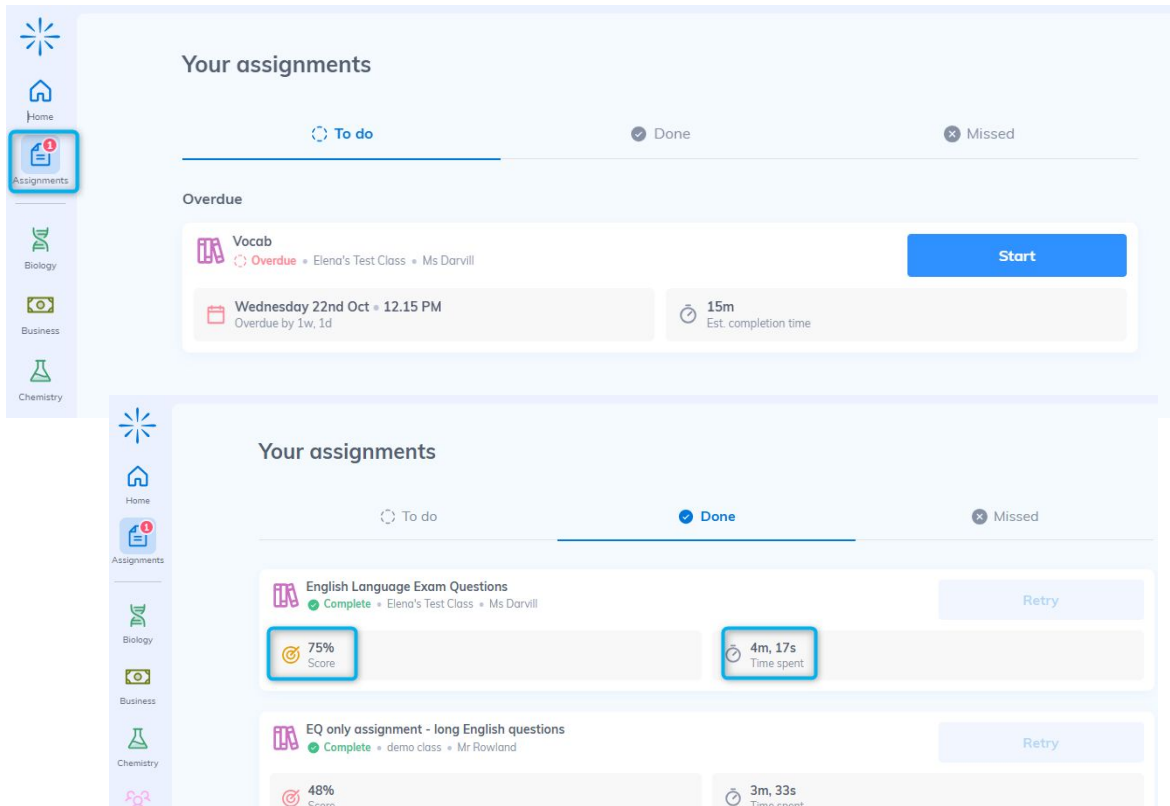

Assignments

Assignments

When your teacher sets you homework via Seneca, this will appear on your Assignments page

- On the navigation bar, click 'Assignments'
- You'll see the sections 'To Do', 'Done', and 'Missed'
- In the 'To Do' tab, find the assignments you need to complete and click 'Start' to begin studying
- In the 'Done' tab, you can find the assignments you've completed, along with your scores and the time spent studying
- In the 'Missed' tab, you can find assignments you did not complete in time

Subjects

Your Subjects

On the left-hand side, you will see all of your subjects.

- You will be automatically enrolled into the courses that your teachers add to your classes (1)
- You can switch courses by clicking on 'Switch course' (2)

Subjects: Onboarding

If you are a new Seneca user, you will see an onboarding flow for your Subjects.

1. Choose your Seneca name and your Avatar
2. Select the year you are studying for
3. Select the subjects you are studying

Subjects: Your Courses

If you want to add more courses to your Subjects, you can:

1. Click on your Avatar at the bottom of the Navigation bar. Then click on 'Courses'

OR

2. Click on the Subject from the Navigation bar. Click 'Switch course', and finally click 'Add course'

Subjects: Your Courses

From the 'Add courses' page, you can use the search bar to find specific topics, or use the Filters.

When you find the course you want to study, just click on it, and start studying 🍌

- The course will be automatically added to the relevant Subject page

The screenshot shows the 'Add courses' interface. On the left is a vertical sidebar with icons for Home, Assignments, English, English Language, English Literature, Food Preparation & Nutrition, French, Geography, German, and History. The main area has a header with 'Your courses' and 'Add courses' tabs. Below the header is a search bar labeled 'Search for a course...'. A 'Filters' panel is open on the left, showing options for Price (Free, Premium), Age Group, Subject, Exam Board, Type, Tier, and Pathway. A 'Free X' button is visible. The main content area displays a grid of course cards, each with a title, a thumbnail image, and a circular progress indicator. The courses listed are: 11+ Comprehension, 11+ Maths, 11+ Non-Verbal Reasoning, 11+ Verbal Reasoning, Applied Science: BTEC Level 3, Biology: AQA A Level, Biology: AQA GCSE Foundation, Biology: AQA GCSE Higher, Biology: Cambridge International A Level, and Biology: Cambridge International GCSE Supplement.

Independent Study

Independent Study: the Overview

- To start studying independently, choose the Subject and Course first (1).
- The 'Overview' (2) shows everything you can do within the course you selected.
- Under the Course title, you will see your progression (3).
- On the left hand side, you can see all the topics you can study for this course (4).
- Click on the section you want to study, and click 'Start Learning' (5)

Classes

Classes

On Seneca, you are automatically enrolled in your teachers classes. If you want to see in what classes you are part of, click on your Account icon at the bottom left of the page, and click on 'Classes'.

Here, you will see all your classes.

The image shows a composite of three screenshots from the Seneca platform. On the left is a vertical sidebar with a user profile for 'Ruth Darvill' (example.account@sen...). The sidebar contains various subject icons (Design Technology, Drama, Economics, English, English Language, English Literature) and utility links (Invite parents, Help centre, Feedback, No sound effects, Light mode, Region, Courses, Settings, Log out). The 'Classes' link, represented by a computer monitor icon, is highlighted with a blue rectangle. An arrow points from this link to the middle screenshot. The middle screenshot shows a 'Search your classes' bar at the top, followed by a grid of class cards: 'Elena's Test Class' (Ms Darvill), 'Team Testing's class' (Team Testing), 'demo class' (Mr Rowland), 'Test' (Mr Chief), and 'Mrs Seneca's Class' (Mrs Seneca +1). An arrow points from the 'Mrs Seneca's Class' card to the rightmost screenshot. The rightmost screenshot is a detailed view of 'Mrs Seneca's Class'. It has tabs for 'Assignments', 'Leaderboards', and 'Settings', with 'Assignments' selected. Below the tabs are buttons for 'To do', 'Done', and 'Missed'. A green banner states 'You have no upcoming assignments'. Below this is a section titled 'Class courses (16)' displaying a grid of course cards, including 'Biology: Edexcel GCSE Higher', 'English Lit: AQA GCSE Frankenstein', 'Biology: AQA GCSE Higher - Standardised Assessments', and 'English Lit: AQA GCSE Animal Farm - Standardised Assessments'.
